

Yoga Class Coordinator - Hackney

We're looking for committed, warm and highly organised volunteers to join the team at our Hackney City Farm yoga class.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Give a warm welcome to the yoga students
- Set-up and pack away the studio
- Prepare tea and other beverages for the students
- Manage travel refunds and registers
- Help students fill out forms
- Organise lunch with kitchen
- Liaise with Ourmala's finance officer and coordinator
- Keep mats clean and tidy

Essential

- Reliable and able to committed to volunteering for a minimum of 6 months
- Sensitive to issues refugees and those seeking asylum might be facing
- Able to communicate effectively with diverse groups: not easily fazed, friendly, patient and compassionate
- Good level of English and strong communication skills
- Quick thinking
- Self-motivated, proactive and able to work on your own initiative
- Good with people
- Open to learning new things

The classes run from 10am - 3pm every Tuesday throughout the year, with breaks for school holidays. You would be required to be there from 9:15am to set up the yoga class and stay to pack down afterwards. At 12pm lunch is served for our students in the farm cafe. We are able to offer you either a travel refund up to £5, or lunch.

To apply, please send your CV and covering letter to ourpeople@ourmala.com
